ORBIT

Designed by Philip Bro

URBAN GEMSTONE

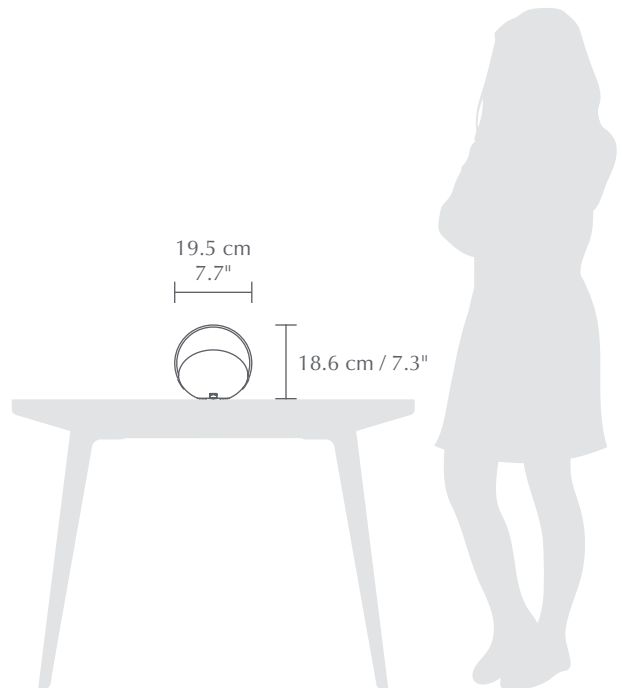

Inspired by the Moon's rotation around the Earth, Orbit is constructed in milky white plastic with refined brass details, making the lamp both lightweight and stylish – and perfect for taking it with you wherever you go. The portable wireless lamp has three different light modes, and its construction lets you turn it on and off – as well as change the light modes – simply by lightly tilting the lamp. The battery lasts for up to 22 hours, and you can easily recharge the lamp by putting it on top of the Unifier wireless charger (not included) or the included charging cable.
